

EUPRERA CONGRESS PUBLICATIONS
THE PUBLISHING AND REVIEWING PROCESS

- for authors -
July 2015

Following the annual EUPRERA Congress there are two publishing opportunities for authors who have successfully submitted and presented papers at the Congress. Authors must indicate when they make their final submission of the paper whether they would like their paper considered for publication and where. They will also be asked to indicate if they DO NOT wish their contribution to be considered. The two publishing opportunities to select from are:

1. Affiliated Congress journal, the Journal of Communication Management (JCOM)
2. Congress Book (The Book)

see below

The Journal

The process for receiving and submitting papers for consideration in the journal are as follows:

The Congress Book

The Congress papers to be considered for the book will be collected and reviewed by the editorial committee (the President, Chair of Scientific Committee and that year's Congress Organiser). The process for the book will be as follows:
